

Say What You Will

Eric Clapton

Say what you will
Good love is hard to find
I've had my fill
Of the hurtin' kind Take a lot of money
To buy up all the pain
Take a lot of, honey
Fill me up, put me back
On my feet again You've seen the worst
Still you find the best of me
My love was cursed
Losin' destiny Take a lot of livin'
To dry up all the tears
Take a lot of grinnin'
Cheer me up, put me back
On my feet again You know I needed a friend
That I could tell my troubles to
And you have been my friend
So I will give my love to you
Good love from me to you Here it comes again
Feel I'm not good enough
Can't remember when
It ever felt so tough Take a lot huggin'
Drive away the fear
Take a lot of lovin'
Pick me up, put me back
On my feet again You know I needed a friend
That I could tell my troubles to
And you have been my friend
So I will give my love to you
A good love from me to you I know you needed a friend
That you could tell your troubles to
And I'll be your friend
And I will give my love to you
A good love from me to you Good love, good love, baby
Good love from me to you
Good love, good love, baby
Good love

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>