Changing World

Kutless

I thought I had it all under control
I thought my fate was still in my hands
All of my plans were firmly set
By the words that I sayI forgot how quickly things can change
Now my vision cannot be the sameMy life is not what I thought
I'm not where I planned to be
Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing worldThough something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world, in my worldI need to let go of my destiny
I need to trust in things unseen
I believe in having faith
Though I yield my controlI forgot how quickly things can change
Now my vision cannot be the sameMy life is not what I thought
I'm not where I planned to be
Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing worldThough something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world, in my worldI'm embracing all of my fears
I am watching them turn to delight
The very fears which were gripping my mind
Are now the hands shaping and sculpting my dreamsMy life is not what I thought
I'm not where I planned to be
Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing worldThough something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing worldIn my world
In my changing world
In my world
In my changing world
