If You Love

Howard Jones

If you love
You know you're gonna feel the hurt
See the flowers
Growin' from the muddy earthYou never see the sun
You're never gonna feel the rain
With your life under glass in the middle lane
You'll never feel the joy, never feel the painIf you love
You know you're gonna feel the hurt
See the flowers
Growin' from the muddy earthTry to build a house on top of the highest tree
It's dangerous and a bit risky
But what about the view
See the clouds and the mountains tooIf you love
You know you're gonna feel the hurt
See the flowers
Growin' from the muddy earthGet your hands dirty
Get a little insane
Come out and play with me
Barefoot in the rainIf you love
You know you're gonna feel the hurt
See the flowers
Growin' from the muddy earthYou never see the sun
You're never gonna feel the rain
With your life under glass in the middle lane
You'll never feel the joy, never feel the painIf you love
You know you're gonna feel the hurt
See the flowers
Growin' from the muddy earth
(Growin' from the muddy earth)If you love
You know you're gonna feel the hurt
(You know you're gonna feel the hurt)
See the flowers
Growin' from the muddy earth
(Growin' from the muddy earth)If you love
You know you're gonna feel the hurtGrowin' from the muddy earth
You know you're gonna feel the hurt
Growin' from the muddy earth
