

The Way Life Is Supposed To Be

Bob Schneider

I saw a falling star
At the foot of the Mountain of the dead
In the middle of the Mexico in my mind I didn't get too far
Thinking about the
Crazy things you said
I turned into this Texaco to unwind This is the way that life is supposed to be
And there's a reason that you just can't see
You'll never be what you'll never be
But you can always be the one for me, baby I saw the big blue world
Crawling across the big blue sky
On its way to somewhere else
I waved good bye 'Cause it's a simple fact
That nothing stays the same
You can hold on till tomorrow
But it'll kick you right back here again This is the way that life's supposed to be
And there's a reason that you just can't see
You'll never be what you'll never be
But you can always be the one for me, baby There are good days
And they come and go
But they never seem to last 'Cause when the bad days
They come around
They always kick
The good days' ass right into the ground This is the way that life's supposed to be
And there's a reason that you just can't see
You'll never be what you'll never be
But you can always be the one for me This is the way that life's supposed to be
And there's a reason that you just can't see
You'll never be what you'll never be
But you can always be the one for me, baby
