

Pretend. Release. The Close

Emarosa

We'll base these lies on this one night for you
And out of the mold we'll rise, out of the mold
 Take back what I own.
 For you I'm alone.This household wreaks Indifference is a curse that we can't pass by
 We will love, I'll break you down
 We will love, I'll break you downThis blow never came so fast, this breathe won't be his last the dreams aliveWe all suffer from insecuritiesThrow your hands to the sky
 Hold it wide
 I lie.Now I know where I'm from today
 Now I know where I'm from todaySaid that you wanted to know How is this going to go
 Failed my life.Out of stone we all fall away
 Out of stone we all fall awayAnd here comes the attitude
 Well I'm not even mad at you
 And just sit back and take a cue
 There's nothing left for you.
