There For Me

cidulator

There for me, every time I've been away
Will you be there for me, thinking of me everyday?
Are you my destiny, words I never dared to say?
Will you be there for me?
Just think of you and me, we could never tow the line
It's such a mystery just to hear you say you're mine
And while you're close to me, so close to me
Just hold me
When you're feeling cold and all the city streets are gray
Walking all alone and watching how the children play
Voices in the wind and faces from the past go dancing by They're asking why
Will you be there for me, every time I go away?
Will you be there for me, thinking of me everyday?
Are you my destiny, words I never dared to say?
Will you be there for me?
And while you're close to me, so close to me
Just hold me
Can you really want me more than for a little while?
What are the stories hiding there behind your smile?
Wishes in a dream and figures in a world that I could share
And everywhere
Will you be there for me?
Will there ever come a day when all the world can see
Things were meant to be that way?
Will you be there for me?
Can you hear the people say, that you're just
There for me?
There for me
There for me
