Fire On Babylon

O'Connor SinÃ©ad

She took my father from my life
Took my sisters and brothers on
I watched her torturing my child
Feeble, I was then but now I'm grownFire on Babylon
Oh yes, the change has come
Fire on Babylon
Fire, fire
FireShe's taken everything I liked
She's taken every lover on
And all along she gave me lies
Just to make me think I loved herFire on Babylon
Oh yes, the change has come
Look what she did to her son
Fire, fire
Fire onLife's backwards, life's backwards
People turn around
The house is burned, the house is burned
The children are goneFire, fire
Fire on Babylon
Oh yes, the change has come
Fire on Babylon
Fire, fire
FireFire on Babylon
Oh yes, the change has come
Look what she did to her son
Look what she did to her son
Fire, fireFire, fire
Fire
Fire on Babylon
Fire on Babylon
