If I Leave Today

Autumn Kings

(Ohhhhhh, Ohhhhh)

The walls were caving in, I grabbed what I could fit,
My hands they were shaking, my head was in a spin,
My feet felt like a weight, with every step I'd take,
I could feel the pressure, like a dog I was running for the gate.

(What I feel are all gone) Don't follow me I wanna leave now, (I won't be long) Not coming back to this sad town, (Don't lie awake) It'll only take a few days how long will it be till you find out.

[Chorus]
I'm, tired of, staying (La, la, la, la, la, lala)
So I'm , leaving (La, la, la, la, la, lala)
Old memories, if I leave today you'll never know, it'll have to be.

I walked up on the train, and every stranger's face, looked the other way,
So I just stood in place, the ground began to shake,
The walls they walked away, I was running out of town but I wasn't running late.

(What I feel are all gone) Don't follow me I wanna leave now, (I won't be long) Not coming back to this sad town, (Don't lie awake) It'll only take a few days how long will it be till you find out.

[Chorus]
Tired of, staying (La, la, la, la, la, lala)
So I'm , leaving (La, la, la, la, la, lala)
Old memories, if I leave today you'll never know, just let me be.

Just another runaway, left to find a better place,
Packed it all up in a case, no expression on his face,
He's leaving out, not checking in,
Gone and swept up with the wind, take a picture while you can.

An old memory is what I'll have to be, just let me be.
Old memory, I'll have to be (If I leave today you'll never know)
Old memory, just let me go.

Lyrics Submitted by Louise Shelley

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/