Promised Land (Acoustic)

Romain Vissol

Forgive me love
Itâ€™s hard to say
Iâ€™m finally home
And thatâ€™s the day

We had our times
We traveled far
You showed me who
You really are

It was not a perfect time
You came to get me
The story proved me wrong, you set me free
I really donâ€™t know why
You came to help me
I really donâ€™t know how you set me free

You showed me how
It wasnâ€™t bad
If I just did the best I can with what I had

The tough nights
The legs in pain
The storm in sight
The heavy rain

You wanted so so hard to get to know me
I didnâ€™t have that much for you to see
Itâ€™s hard to love oneself
You came to help me
To help me love my own insanity

And now Iâ€™m home
Itâ€™s time to say
That you were wrong
But thatâ€™s okay

I saw the world
Now I can see
That all there is

Is you and me

Is you and me
Is you and me
You and me
