Ned's Atomic Dustbin

I've just found out and there's no doubt
I've been getting in the way
Well, I held back not to freak out
'Cause there was nothing to sayI could see how I got carried away
The only thing that keeps me scared
It's the only thing that keeps me there
It's just typical of me and typical of herWhen it's all day and it's all night
It's no surprise, we're in and out of grace
We're all mean and we all fight
For fear of losing faceI can see why it gets blown out of place
The only thing that keeps us down
It's the only thing that makes us sound
So painfully humble, so painfully proud
