Fallen Angel (Acoustic Version)

Sirenia

I've always felt so cold inside
Clinging on to life
I've always felt at one with the night
Fading deep insideWinter winds are blowing through my life
Deep inside I know that I can run but I can't hide[Chorus:]
Fallen angel at my side
Take me by the hand
And lead me far into night
Far away from this lifeI've always felt so drawn to the sea
So deep and wild and free
I've always lived my life through my dreams
To deny life's miseryWinter winds are blowing through my life
Deep inside I know that I can run but I can't hide[Chorus][Solo][Chorus x2]
