

Sins Of The Father

Black Sabbath

I am the crazy man
Who lives inside your head
But I think I'm breaking through the wall You are the innocent
Convicted of the crime
No one was ever there to catch you when you fall I see the diamonds
But you only see the rock
I need to run and you only crawl It's time to open up
All the doors that you keep locked
Nobody gives without a take, let's take it all Oh, you've been twisted into pieces
By the hands of your emotions
How much longer are you gonna pay
For yesterday, sins of the father? One more crucifixion
One more cross to bear
You're a hole in a photograph Go on, lose it in the city
The city can feel no shame
See the world with electric eye They call it mystery
But any fool could see
You thought he walked on the water And if the pain was gone
And you were free to run away
And get out Would you get out of there
Or do you really care?
It's not safe or easy And maybe when you're gone
You just won't belong
At all Oh, you're the only witness
To the murder of an angel
How much longer are you gonna pay
For yesterday, sins of the father? Now it's just Another crucifixion
One more cross to bear Go on, lose it in the city
Take a look at the world
You've got electric eyes

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>