

The Sun Hasn't Set on This Boy Yet

Nils Lofgren

I dropped out of high school
It bored me to death
They taught me a dress code
And lodged my respect I fled up to New York
And learned from the plants
That the sun hadn't set
On this boy yet I came back an artist
I tried to play a story
Friends called me loser
Yet envied the glory I fought for humanity
I sank in the sand
But the sun hasn't set
On this boy yet
On this boy yet Everyone just makes me strong alright
Somehow when the lights went out
I got myself through the night, yes I did So I went west
And I found out
Hope was all around me
And that's what life is all about I'm back on my feet
Err, with no regrets
'Cause the sun hasn't set
On this boy yet No, the sun hasn't set
On this boy yet
The sun hasn't set on this boy yet
On this boy yet
