

Beautiful World

Carolina Liar

Here it comes in the morning
Im just trying to forget
Keep it real, keep it simple
And somehow just get out of bed And this city is endless
Im as cold as its stone
Yeah this city is endless
And Im, Im walking alone Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets, theres no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend til Im almost certain
Its a beautiful world I wanna ask for direction
But I dont dare to disturb
I got a thing with affections
Yeah, and thats why Im walking alone Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets, theres no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend til Im almost certain
Its a beautiful world Here it comes in the morning Sunlight creeps in between the curtains
Lose the sheets, theres no time for sleep
I lie, I pretend til Im almost certain
Its a beautiful world
(Yeah, its a beautiful world) La la la la
I lie, I pretend til Im almost certain
Its a beautiful world
