The Lost Name Of God

Amorphis

We have to know, we have to see
Religions so many, which one is for real
That it makes us to believe?
Crushing the chains of faithTo find the way of immortality
We're hiding behind the cross
To find a shelter
We're searching for name of GodUnder the flag of salvation
We cleared this land of pagans
Under cover of Christianity
We stained our hands in bloodUnder the flag of salvation
We cleared this land of pagans
Under cover of Christianity
We stained our hands, hands in bloodIn a maze of hatred
The name of God is lost
At this time of anguish
The name of God is lostI saw the coming of the end
Sun stopped its shining, air is no longer fresh
Then it was too late to realize
That we can't breathe our hate
