

Turn Back

K Koke

Born me 1985

10 months later my little bro arrived raised in a place where its do to survive my mommy shopped food to put honey in our hive i can see the hunger in her eyes i can see that something wasnt right she taught me how to rapish up my first ticket she told me watch my back and b smart with it an i wish that i could take you there to a place that my brain takes me everyday i can smile but it still wont take the pain away i could try but remain in this lonley place from a child ive been raised in a soldier way mommy didnt ramp she called us the krays no jokes she showed us the ways

Maverick Sabre:

Ive been living this daily with no peace no day dreams to save me get high cause i want to survive wish i could draw back the hands of time. X2

K-KOKE:

Mommy couldn't cope so she turned to drugs but auntie Tina give us hope she was there for us i was raised on the roads wheres its rare to trust now my hearts been broke now im scared to love an i might seem closed until i open up feel the weight of the struggle Ive been holding up been betrayed by a cuddle and a heartless hug i drink pain from a bottle till my heart feels numb cause i came from the bottom of this bottle of rum aint changed from a young un Ive been stuck in the slums grey days up in London aint no summer for us there trying to take aid they want my brother in cuffs and i just came home this ay nothing to ask like the court don't know how a suffer does dis is poor home grown but moms love was enough so i want to give her more than shes giving to us.

Maverick Sabre:

i don't want to feel this i don't want to seek this i don't want to hurt no more i don't want to be this i don't want to feed this i don't need to fight this war cause im trying to be somebody there's nothing i fear that can cloud it I'm trying to be somebody Need to get on up
Need to get on up now..

Maverick Sabre:

Ive been living this daily with no peace no day dreams to save me
