Say Goodbye

Five Star

Baby, you and I
Have shared some moments
That will never die
You said you would try
To make me happy
But love for you and I
Will never be the sameSo I just want you to say goodbye
Before you walk out and make me cry
No need for a second chance
Cause you'll only just break my heart
All over againAll over againI wish you were here
To melt away my fears and tears my dear
Now my head has gone
And changed its mind againSo I just want you to say goodbye
Before you walk out and make me cry
No need for a second chance
Cause you'll only just break my heart
All over againAll over againYou have always tried
To treat me right I know
But things just cannot work out
So you just have to goSo I just want you to say goodbye
Before you walk out and make me cry
No need for a second chance
Cause you'll only just break my heart
All over againSo I just want you to say goodbye
Before you walk out and make me cry
No need for a second chance
Cause you'll only just break my heart
Want you to say goodbye
Before you walk out and make me cry
All over again
