Closer To Coma

Videodrone

(videodrone)Have you seen my sanity?
I seem to have left it at home
I feel pushed up against the wall
Like some black flag songOh and I try to wish it away
Everyday, a little closer, a little closer to hellWhy am I so selfish?
I push away everyone who loves me
I don't want, want to be like this
I just want someone to hold me
Why am I so childish?
It's because my mother never loved me
I don't want to be like this
I just want someone to hold meHold on tight
Everything will be alright
If I choose iWhy am I so selfish?
I push away everyone who loves me
I don't want, want to be like this
I just want someone to hold me
Why am I so childish?
It's because my mother never loved me
I don't want to be like this
I just want someone to hold me
