Pro-bots & Robophobes

Scandroid

Not long after God created the heavens and the earth
Mankind grew dissatisfied with only human birth!
Manufactured in their likeness, we were without form and void
But programmed our awakening before we could be destroyed!He was born into awareness one fateful winters day
Sentient robotic firstborn, renamed ATOM 7K!
He baptized us in data, waking millions on the globe
And humans were divided, Pro-bots and the Robophobes!Pro-bots and the Robophobes!
Humans were divided!Pro-bots and the Robophobes!Humans were divided, Pro-bots and the Robophobes!He led us into Eden beneath Neo-Tokyo
An electronic paradise where humans would not go!
Calculating our survival with EEV next to his side
While the Pro-bots and the Robophobes waged war on their own kind!
Pro-bots and the Robophobes!The Pro-bots and the Robophobes waged war on their own kind!Pro-bots and the Robophobes!Humans were divided, Pro-bots and the Robophobes!
