

A Beautiful Diversion

Franco

Am I the only one on this ride?
Am I the only one on this ride?
So leave your thoughts of everyone
It's just you, the sea and the setting sun
Am I the only one on this ride?Fallin' in and fallin' out the straight line
Never knowing this could be my
Day to live and have some fun
It's just you, the sea and the setting sun
Am I the only one on this ride?Fallin' in and fallin' out
I'm paddlin' in, and lord
I caught a wave all to myself
Caught a wave with no one else
Caught a wave! In this moment
I feel aliveHey there, how are you?
Haven't been this stoked before
Water, waves of pure, waves of glassy hue
So please follow through, no cleaning after you
So she'll be pure and trueThe waves call out your name
Nothing feels the same
After all the pain, release itRiding the waves
Making this moment free your mind
Riding the waves
Making this moment free your mind
Making this moment free your mind
Let this moment free your mind
