

Promises (From "the Music In Me")

Debbie Gibson

Promises made, promises broken
That was my song
Only song that I knew
I never kept one
My heart was not open
No but now, you see me new
The rose beyond the promise
Is all I've come to be
Because I kept that promise
Oh not made to me
Promises made, promises broken
No that is not who I am
Now its all in
What is unspoken
And all can believe once again
Rejoice, rejoice
We are one song one voice
And we are free
Just sing
Sing strong
We know where we belong
No one can never break it
When you see the promise bloom
Promises made, promises broken
The only song
I ever knew
Now we're all in
And here with hearts open
Standing in whats true
The rose beyond that promise
Before you, yeah that's me
And I'm delivering
Internally
