Who Is Who

Adolescents

Friends call me enemy 'cause they're a fucking joke
They'd better get their act together it's time that they awoke
I'm cast out by my relatives 'cause they don't want me around
Just sit in a corner and I don't make a sound, not one wordThe walls are closing in on me, I don't know what to do
Please tell me who is who, tell me who is who, tell me who is whoPolicemen are my friends so why do they always stare
Raid our clubs bust out parties condemned for short hair
Teachers are my friends so why do they make me stand
In front of a class of gawking fools who'll never understand
They'll never understandThe world around me falls apart, I don't know what to do
Please tell me who is who, tell me who is who, tell me who is whoThe world around me falls apart, I don't know what to do
Please tell me who is who, tell me who is who, tell me who is whoTell me who is who, tell me who is who, tell me who is who
