

Lather

Mndsgn

lying here
melting away
i can't quite tell if i'm here to stay your love is taking me to another place the colors and harmonies leaving me with nothing to say but there ain't nothing to say the only thing i wanna do is embrace this moment
for a change you oughta know that i'm ready and willing to leave it all behind
for the truth
so just lather me out of this world i really don't mind if you lather me out of this world lather me out of this world
lather me into your world lying here with my braids pulled wide open and i can't explain what it is that's got me feeling this type of way what you do for me is otherworldly leaving me with nothing to say because there ain't nothing to say
the only thing i wanna do
for a change
you oughta know
for the truth so just lather me out of this world
lather me into your world
