

Savior of the World

Mersi Stone

A silent night and a starry sky
A child of hope and love
The angels came, the Heavens sang
"Behold Him, behold Him!"

The Savior of the world is born today
Hallelujah
The Savior is born today
Hallelujah
'Jah

Dust on their feet, they came from far to see
The One, the Prince of Peace
They fell to their knees, His mother saying,
"Behold Him, behold Him!"

The Savior of the world is born today
Hallelujah
The Savior is born today
Hallelujah
'Jah

Every time I see a star on a tree
I think of all He's done for me
With a tear on my face, I smile and say,
"Behold Him, behold Him!"

The Savior of the world lives today
Hallelujah
The Savior lives today
Hallelujah
'Jah
'Lujah
'Jah
