Deeper

Hanson

She moves with a tender kiss
and I can't stop feeling, She soothes with her tenderness
and I can't stop feeling,
I don't even know her name,
but I can't stop feeling, She says that she feels the same
and I can't stop feeling,
And if you let me try tonight you just might see that I'm falling deeper & deeper & deeper in love.
And I'm feeling more & more & more & more & more alone.
She turns chaos into art
and I can't stop feeling,
A touch and I fall apart
and I can't stop feeling,
I'm sounding like an old clich
