

chased byâ€i don't know what

Snow Patrol

And I'll come running for my life
Scramble through these greasy pathways
I can't look up for fear of forwards
I hear your words reverberateAn easy ride is all you said I wasPlease try to control your feelings
It doesn't make me want you more
I'm terrified by every vacant
Glance you shoot across my way
