Steer

Missy Higgins

Feel it falling off like clothing

Taste it rolling on your tongue

See the lights above you glowing

Oh, and breathe them deep into your lungsIt was always simple, not hidden hard

You've been pulling at the strings

Playing puppeteer for kings

And you've had enoughBut the search ends here

Where the night is totally clear

And your heart is fierce

So now you finally know

That you control where you go

You can steerSo hold this feeling like a new born

Of freedom surging through your veins

You have opened up a new door

So bring on the wind, the fire and the rainIt was always simple, not hidden hard

You've been played at a game

Called remembering your name

And you stuffed it upBut the search ends here

Where the night is totally clear

And your heart is fierce

So now you finally know

That you control where you go

You can steer, ohSo now you finally know

That you control where you go

You can steer'Cos you've been listening for answers

Oh, but the city screams and all your dreams go unheardBut the search ends here

Where the night is totally clear

And your heart is fierce

So now you finally know

That you control where you go

You can steer, ohYeah, get out of the box and step into the clear, oh

'Cos now you finally know you can steer
