Stay Tonight

Toasted Heretic

49 hours and 46 minutes to go
but who's counting. i just thought
I'd let you know
I filled my head with your voice.
And now I'm drowning,
Well I wrote this song for you.
You can stay tonight,
And make everything alright.
You can hold me down,
And tell me that you're right.
Tell me what it's like to be alone.
And we have this down,
Unlike everybody.
I'll spend a million nights
Just like tonight you know,

I screamed your name at the sky,
Until I lost my voice.
Well I'd give my life for you.
You can stay tonight,
And make everything alright.
You can hold me down,
And tell me that you're right.
Tell me what it's like to be alone.
You can stay tonight...
You can stay tonight,
And make everything alright.
You can hold me down,
And tell me that you're right.
Tell me what it's like to be alone.
