

Queen of Hearts

Company Of Thieves

Meet me in the middle of my mind, and no one else
I've been waiting here now for a while, I need your help
Like the time you tore my skin and all the world went blank
Never felt such real escape- it bled into the day I stress talking so much that it hurts, then
Can't speak but a word to a lover that was I'm gonna paint myself aside, like something second in line
Just gonna paint myself aside, like something second in line Meet me in the middle of the night; I never sleep
Since you told me all the secrets that I swore to keep
In my dreams I can make love to you without a fight
And sometimes I wonder if it's wrong or if it's right I stress talking so much that it hurts, then
Can't speak but a word to a lover that was I'm gonna paint myself aside- like something second in line
Just gonna paint myself aside- like something second in line Here, within the walls, I cannot take all the wreck involved (it's contagious)
Here, within the walls, I cannot take it- all the wreck involved Everyone's taking their cards
As usual, I'll be the Queen of Hearts I'm gonna paint myself aside- like something second in line
Just gonna paint myself aside- like something second in line
I'm going silver
All over silver

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>