

Oh My Dear

Jesse Thomas

The stars, the stars must've been in align
The day, the day your path crossed mine,
They had to be all the best I've ever seen,
A sea, a sea of energy.

Oh My Dear
What've you done
You took my heart
And then you run

Damn you and my missconnection
You're walking in the wrong direction
Everything I shoulda said
Plays over in my head
Now I'm just taunted by the broken record

Oh, oh, oh, ohh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, ohh, oh

I trip, I trip on every word
You make, you make it less awkward
Your eyes in a light
My love is redefined
I choke, I choke, I shoulda spoke

Oh My Dear
What've you done
You took my heart
And then you run

Damn you and my missconnection
You're walking in the wrong direction
Everything I shoulda said
Plays over in my head

Now I'm just taunted by
The broken record

Oh, oh, oh, ohh, oh

Oh, oh, oh, ohh, oh

-Bridge unknown-

Oh My Dear
What've you done
You took my heart
And then you run

Damn you and my missconnection
You're walking in the wrong direction
Everything I shoulda said
Plays over in my head

Now I'm just taunted by
The broken record

Oh, oh, oh, ohh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, ohh, oh

Oh My Dear, what've you done?
