

International Rock Star

Stars

that would make the day go down easy crucified in my sports car i've got high hopes for things infamously.and then there's love so keep, keepin' you down you find release in the big (?)international rockstar that will make the pain go away the last one standing at the bar is the dream that will have to do for todayand then there's love
so keep, keepin' you down you find some peace in the big (?)well its funny (until then until then until then) that this is getting easy (i can see...) [repeat 4 times]
