Spaceman

The Killers

It started with a low light
Next thing I knew they ripped me from my bed
And then they took my blood type
It left a strange impression in my headYou know that I was hoping
That I could leave this star-crossed world behind
But when they cut me open
I guess that changed my mindAnd you know I might Have just flown too far from the floor this time
'Cause they calling me by my nameAnd they're zipping white light beams
Disregarding bombs and satellites
And that was the turning point
That was one lonely nightThe star maker says, "It ain't so bad"
The dream maker's gonna make you mad
The spaceman says, "Everybody look down"
It's all in your mindWell, now I'm back at home and I'm looking forward to this life I live
You know it's gonna haunt me
So hesitation to this life I giveYou think you might cross over
You're caught between the devil and the deep blue sea
You better look it over
Before you make that leapAnd you know I'm fine
But I hear those voices at night
Sometimes they justify my claimAnd the public don't dwell on my transmission
'Cause it wasn't televised
But it was the turning point
Oh what a lonely nightThe star maker says, "It ain't so bad"
The dream maker's gonna make you mad
The spaceman says, "Everybody look down"
It's all in your mindThe star maker says, "It ain't so bad"
The dream maker's gonna make you mad
The spaceman says, "Everybody look down"
It's all in your mindMy global position systems are vocally addressed
They say the Nile used to run from east to west
They say the Nile used to run from east to west
I'm fine but I hear those voices at night sometimesThe star maker says, "It ain't so bad"
The dream maker's gonna make you mad
The spaceman says, "Everybody look down"
It's all in your mindThe star maker says, "It ain't so bad"
The dream maker's gonna make you mad

The spaceman says, "Everybody look down"
It's all in your mindIt's all in my mind
It's all in my mind
