What Love Can Do

LeToya Luckett

What love can do
What love can doI'm losing sleep over you
Look what you've done to me
Not saying you ain't the truth
This love's no fantasySometimes I'm so sick of you
I need some therapy
Just like an addict on you
Making no recoverySo should I stay, should I go
Do I do, do I don't
Will I will, will I won't
Do like my momma told me
That's what love can do
Now I know
Everything just ain't good for you
Said I'm feeling like a fool, a foolIt's got me so confused
Oh, baby
Maybe that's just what love can do
Love can do, what love can doSee you sweep me off my feet
Then bring me down to my knees
And then occasionally
I'm like somewhere in betweenEvery time we get it right
We go wrong
And tell me why does every fight
Turn me on, on
So should I stay, should I go
Do I do, do I don't
Will I will, will I won't
Do like my momma told meThat's what love can do
Now I know
Everything just ain't good for you
I said I'm feeling like a fool, a foolIt's got me so confused
Oh, baby
Maybe that's just what love can do
Love can do, what love can doEvery time we fuss and fight
I'm headed for the door
And I know inside that this shit ain't
But it makes me want you moreMy friends tell me that I should bounce
Maybe I should just up and leave
But they can't say 'cause they don't know

Just what you do to me, you do to meThat's what love can do
Oh, baby
Everything just ain't good for you
See everything just ain't good for youIt's got me so confused
But it feels so good
Maybe that's just what love can do
Now I know allThat's what love can do
That's what love can do to you
Everything just ain't good for you
No, everything just ain't good for you, no, no, noIt's got me so confused
I'm so confused
Maybe that's just what love can do
What love can do, what love can doOh, baby
What love can do
What love can do
