Autumn

Bear In Heaven

Silent romance guided by chance just like everything.
Hold together, would he ever suffocate the pain?Oh time softly pounding in your chest.
Oh time softly laying down to rest.Take it easy, nice and easy Lazarus my love.
Say forever, hold together, let me know again.Oh time softly pounding in your chest.
Oh time softly laying down to rest.Now and then there's a pleasure bearing down and I'm lost upon all the pressure bearing down.Quietly beating drum, beating drum.
Quietly beating drum, beating drum.
