Low Expectations

Edwyn Collins

So, you set out on your own
You shut up shop, you're leavin' home
You feel no need to settle down
In the crippled crook of your earth bound townAnd you've been down this road before
Which is not to say you're bored
Or that you shouldn't want for more
It's just your expectations should be lowerThere must be somethin' more than this
More than ideal homes or domestic bliss
What is there left for you to do
'Cause you've seen the future and it's nothin' newAnd you've been down this road before
Which is not to say you're bored
Or that you shouldn't want for more
It's just your expectations should be lower, should be lower
