

The End of Sanctuary

Sinner

i'm trapped in this silence i'm feeling so cold no prayer and no future no warning - no hope there is no tomorrow and i can't see the sun i light up this candle and i'm waiting for the sacred on the bond of holy living at the end of sanctuary i never thought that tale's reality you won't believe, what did i see? the end of sanctuary the world will run scared no one is prepared it comes out of the blue and destroy the sacred world
