Silence (Atbc Mix)

Aeon Spoke

Draw me a picture of the sun so i can hang it in my room i can make believe that i am getting warm find courage to pursueWell we only hurt to afford the sun we stare at the stars that tear us apart and we laugh, the mirror speaks outsilence, silenceSo tell me beauty won't decrease is to fail to? attain my instincts like a life i left still lingerWell we only hurt to afford the sun to stare at the darkness and pray for some stars then we cry we found a new arkSilence, silenceIm still wishing you love we stare at the dark im still wishing you love silence
