Push

Ra

Daddy, where did all the people go?
Mommy, you won't tell me what you know
Evil smiles while they lie to you
Careless secrets glorified untrueI can't push it all away
Every minute every day
We have to find the time to make these people do the things the saySorry, I look past the truth alone
Maybe, with my fists I throw a stone
Shallow, graves fill up without regret
Broken, promises we all forgetI can't push it all away
Every minute every day
We have to find the time to make these people do the things the sayI can't push it all away
Every minute every day
We have to find the time to make these people do the things the sayIt falls out of my brain
The visions of my brothers dying in the sand
It always seems the same
The basest instinct convalesces
In what is the worst of manListen
We can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the lightWe can make it right
We can make them see us in the light
(I can't push it all away)We can make it right
We can make them see us in the light
