

Repeat Offender

Maisey Rika

Welcome to the jungle of owls and spiders.
Things could go in your favour, turn around and bite you in the ass.
Don't it make you wana cry, kiss your mama say goodbye.
Bye bye bye aint no way im gonna stay, you wonder why i dont pay.

Repeat repeat offender, through the generations
who the hell are we suppose to blame?
My people are the ones who suffer.
Repeat repeat offender, through the generations
like zombies we conform to foriegn laws.
Society's the one to blame blame blame blame.

This is a song for my people, 'Nga tangata whenua o aotearoa' Kia tupoto! Please Kia tupoto! They will never understand the spiritual connection we have with our land.
Money talks, our land walks its our children who miss out keep strong my people, keep strong, keep strong he maori, he maori, he maori ahau

Repeat repeat offender through the generations
why dont you grow a brain and then you'll come to see this was not the path meant for me yeah,

Repeat repeat offender through the generations
like zombies we conform to foriegn laws
society's the one to blame blame blame blame

Kia whawhai tonu matou mo ake,ake,ake
whatu ngarongaro he tangata toi tu te whenua
Kia whawhai tonu matou mo ake,ake,ake

Lyrics submitted by kiriann hat.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>