Livin' A Lie

The-dream

Apparently wasn't what it seemed
Love is such a lonely place
Only in my dreams are you good to me and passionately
You show how much you love me
I gotta snap outta denial accept this as our fate
Can't wait for love's arrival I'll be waiting 'til the end of days until I realize
I'm living such a lie
Acting like this isn't us
I'm living a lie
We hit the end of our road
The truth is around the bend
I guess that we hit a dead end this is it
We just ain't working I won't go any further
If I do I'll just be living a lie
I don't think you understand because we did this song and dance before
But honesty is what I've reached
I ain't walking in the dark no more

I gotta snap outta denial accept this as our fate
Can't wait for love's arrival I'll be waiting 'til the end of days until I realize
I'm living such a lie
Acting like this isn't us
I'm living a lie
We hit the end of our road
The truth is around the bend
I guess that we hit a dead end this is it
We just ain't working I won't go any further
If I do I'll just be living a lie
Reintroduced myself to reality
I see what's real or fake or fact or just a fantasy
I'm letting go of my fears
Its over I won't look back at all
My minds back w/ its owner

I'm living such a lie
