Don't Go

Stevie McCrorie

Lyrics for Don't Go by Stevie McCrorie
When i rise and the sky, hasen't woke up.
And your eyes, can't disguise, that you broke up.

I'm more so tired, of leaving your side.
I'm more so tired, Is this the last time?
Holding on so tight, says honey listen.

Don't go...
Slowly left behind
Holding on so tight, says honey listen
Don't go...
We'll stay, at home.
Don't go...

I know i promised you more than this.
And i'm still trying.
And when I'm done, you will know.
And we'll just lying.

I'm more so tired, of leaving your side.
I'm more so tired, Is this the last time?
Holding on so tight, says honey listen.

Don't go...
Holding on so tight, says honey listen
Don't go...
We'll stay, at home.
Don't go...

Just belieive me honey.
I'll protect you til the light runs out.
The light runs out.

Just belieive me honey.
I'll protect you til the light runs out.
The light runs out.

Holding on so tight, says honey listen.

Don't go...
Holding on so tight, says honey listen
Don't go...
We'll stay, at home.
We'll stay, at home.
Don't go...
