Your Number Is One

Henry Rollins; Rollins Band

the chaos that surrounds you the facts that astound you at last your number has found you
your number is one
I'm looking high
I'm looking low
I want to know therefore I go your number is onesee them pull into the slow lane the no go lane
watch them take the poison that drives them all insane
your number is one
your number is one
your mind decided
your number is one
you are undivided
for you there is but one direction
your number is one
I am looking high
I'm looking low
your number is one
I am looking high
I'm looking low
your number is onethat number is one
one
one
the only onethat number is one
one
one
the only onekeep the ? intact keep the ? at the top of the stack when you get to all the other stacks take the stack down off the rack
your number is one
your mind has decided
your number is one
you are undivided

your number is one
I'm looking high
your number is one
I'm looking high
one
one
one
one
the only oneyeahone
one
one
the only oneone
one
one
the only oneyour number is one
one
one
one
one
