

Take You Over (Craig C Remix)

Bleona

You don't understand that my class is bigger than my ass
And my money's like my french it's next to perfect

You don't understand that my lips are really meant to kiss
And my stronger side resist what I really want to do
And that's you

Yeah

And that's you If I take your last breath
If I hold you captive
But you throw your hands in the air

And surrender

And let my love take you over, over wow Let my love take you over, over wow (Take you over, I let my love take you) You don't understand you in my space could make me catch a case

So, just get up of my face

For you really love me

You don't understand that my sex, it's not what comes next
It's the fucing of your mind, that gets me excited

With you

Yeah

With you

If I take your last breath

If I hold your captive

But you throw hands in the air

And surrender

take you)
