Never Seen No Devil

The Twilight Singers

Hush now, baby
Soon I'll see you in my dreams
Asking nuthin'
Nuthin's ever what it seemsBaby wants the milk and honey
Ask me and you shall receive
Never seen no devil wear his heart upon his sleeveDown on the corner-
Where the streets have turned to sand
If you-
Do unto others, you will die by your own handBaby pulls me even closer
Tangled like the web she weaves
Shaking off her demons
Now they're coming after meDon't mistake me
Ain't no ordinary man
Gonna save me
From that shotgun in your handCovering the walls in shadow
Faster that the sound of speed
Never seen no devil
Now that's all that I can seeI see you too, I see you too
You can't deny, you can't deny
