

Disturbed

Broomstick Witches

DISTURBED
cause she sits in a dark room dreams of demons and vampyres they call her disturbed cause she walks alone through cemeteries in the misty moonlight they call her disturbed cause she wears piercings all over her body has a black tattoo of Satan on each hip
they call her disturbed
cause she wears black on a sunny day and her hair is purple and blue
they call her disturbed
and her parents don't understand her dark obsessions and her teachers tell them give her medications cause she's so disturbed and they put her in a straitjacket and give her electroshock make her well make her like them she's so disturbed she's so disturbed and they lock her up in a padded cell cause they fear her eyes of fire and hell she's so disturbed she's so disturbed she laughs at them with devilish eyes talks with demons and vampyres scorns her parents and teachers cause they're disturbed so disturbed they call her disturbed so disturbed she's so disturbed poor girl she's so disturbed
