

Swiss Francs

Ryan Leslie

Bills foreign, Swiss Francs
Before I die I need my money in a Swiss Bank
I can see right through these haters, fish tanks
Plus they frownin' at my watch like my wrist stanks Bills foreign, Swiss Francs
Before I die I stack my money in a Swiss Bank
I can see right through these haters, fish tanks
Plus they frownin' at my watch When I was young, I had a dream of being President
Went to Harvard, the best money I ever spent
Graduated young, now they're saying I'm a mogul
People ask me what my address is I tell them, global New headquarters, down Wall Street
Went from being broke in Harlem, now we all eat
Twin Benz trucks, call that double parked
Plus every record I make is a fuckin' work of art I'm gettin' more money since I went independent
And they never seen me coming, had my windows tinted
The crown prince, pride of my community
And when I fly I want diplomatic immunity
My passport is stamped out, I need some pages
When I die they gon' act out my life on movie stages
Got a hired gun, motto is "Protect the Chief"
Keep these haters from scheming on this Patek Philippe Bills foreign, Swiss Francs
Before I die I want my money in a Swiss Bank
I can see right through these haters, fish tanks
Plus they frownin' at my watch like my wrist stanks Bills foreign, Swiss Francs
Before I die stack my money in a Swiss Bank
I can see right through these haters, fish tanks
Plus they starin' at my watch The campaign is global the dollar ain't what it used to be
Switch a frank for a dollar you get like 1.3
Theres too many haters, theres only one of me
They just mad cause I'm everything they wanna be 30 thousand feet, I'm outta reach
Lifestyle is extravagant word to Robin leech
On the road homie I ain't seen my bed in weeks
But what I need a bed for money never sleeps
So I don't neither, I need the cash
Security gotta pistol it's underneath the dash
He ain't scared to use it, I don't need to worry
You ain't got my deposit homie you need hurry
