

Fool Like Me (feat. Plastiscines)

Cobra Starship

Your daddy always said you should stay away from
A fool like me, a fool like me
And when your momma sees me callin' on your telephone
The b hangs up on me
Huh? Remember that time I blew your mailbox up
I was just kidding about that (kidding about that)
I'm sorry that I hit your dog with my bike
But he's still got three legs, he's gonna be just fine
And baby, baby I ain't too sure that
I know how to change anymore
But
This I know for sure
I just got eyes for you
Even though your friends say: Oh my God, how can she be with him?
Oh my God, leave his a! Your daddy always said you should stay away from
A fool like me, a fool like me
And when your momma sees me callin' on your telephone, she hangs up on me
That b hangs up on me
Yeah I know
That I'm a grown a man
Who still acts like an idiot
But Lord he must have been in a good mood the day
He let a girl like you
Choose to take a fool like me I never meant to drive your car into that tree
I'm still real sorry about that (sorry about that)
And I know I can't get it right
But I would do anything, anything
For my
Baby, baby you ain't too sure that
I know how to change anymore
But
This you know for sure
I just got eyes for you
Even though your friends say: Oh my God, how can she be with him?
Oh my God, leave his a! Your daddy always said you should stay away from
A fool like me, a fool like me
And when your momma sees me callin' on your telephone, she hangs up on me
That b hangs up on me
Yeah I know

That I'm a grown a man
Who still acts like an idiot
But Lord he must have been in a good mood the day
He let a girl like you
Choose to take a fool like me, take a fool like me
Take a fool like Oh my God!
How can she be with him?
Oh my God!
How can she be with him?
Oh my God
Leave his a! Your daddy always said you should stay away from
A fool like me, a fool like me
And when your momma sees me callin' on your telephone, she hangs up on me
That b* hangs up on me
Yeah I know
That I'm a grown a man
Who still acts like an idiot
But Lord he must have been in a good mood the day
He let a girl like you
Choose to take a fool like me
