

The Vision

Chris De Burgh

And I saw a burning chariot and the four horsemen
Of the apocalypse waiting on high
And I heard the thunder rolling in and behold our leader
On a pale horse riding in the sky And I saw this land a battlefield with a hundred thousand men
Fighting hand to hand and I heard the sounds of victory
And the rivers ran red with the blood of our enemies And I, I saw fire from the sky, I saw fire
And I saw paradise, paradise, fire from the sun
I saw fire and I saw Alpha and Omega, fire, I saw fire
And I saw paradise, paradise, fire, I saw fire
