

Heart With Your Name On It

New Medicine

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

God damn you treat me like shit
But I keep coming back for more
I'm so over it, but I just can't run
Cause just when I think I've had enough
Of your suicidal love

Well you always suck me inI guess I get a heart with your name on it

I can't get away from it, no matter what I do
I should be single while I'm young
Hooking up and having fun

But I keep coming back to youMaybe cause you're so damn hot
I always let it slide

When you wallow me off
On Friday nightIt's like the more fucked up shit you do
The more I'm into you

And I just can't say goodbyeI guess I get a heart with your name on it
I can't get away from it, no matter what I do
I should be single while I'm young
Hooking up and having fun
But I keep coming back to you(x3)

Back to you

Back to youBack to you, back to you, back to youBreaking up was my idea, so why do I feel so low?

You know that I tried like hell to forget you
I'm lying in someone else's bed, but you're all up in my head
Like there's no escaping you(x2)
I guess I get a heart with your name on it
I can't get away from it, no matter what I do
I should be single while I'm young
Hooking up and having fun
But I keep coming back to youOh yeah I keep coming back to you.
