

No One Can Love You Anymore

Randy Owen

There ain't a man anywhere in this world
That wouldn't wanna try to steal you, girl, away from me
They could give you material things
Oh, like you've never seen, ice you down like a queen
But darling, I offer you this
The one thing I've got to give
As long as I live
No one can love you anymore
No one can care the way I do
Oh girl, I promise you this
This kiss is forever, you can be sure
No one could love you anymore
I waited all my life
For something that feels this right now here it is
Oh, there ain't a doubt in my mind
Every time your lips touch mine I fall again
Your eyes say so much
And I see the future in us
Oh, and I can't tell you enough
No one can love you anymore
No one can care the way I do
Oh girl, I promise you this
This kiss is forever, you can be sure
No one could love you anymore
This kiss is forever, you can be sure
No one can love you anymore
No one can love you, no one can love you
No one can love you anymore
No one can love you, no one can love you
No one can love you anymore
No one can love you, no one can love you
